

What are the benefits of LIFETIME Aftersales membership?

Set out below are the services available free of charge to clients that subscribe to the LIFETIME Aftersales membership programme. However, should you choose not to apply for membership we can still offer you our services on an individual fee basis.

Immediately after your purchase you'll get regular update calls and, via the members section of the website, you'll be given access to FREE updates on your development, FREE annual airport pick-up, a range of discounts on other items plus the assistance and co-ordination provided by our call centre who have direct access to the solicitors, developers and sales teams that you purchased with, ensuring continuity.

When the completion date for your property nears you will be allocated a personal account manager from a regional team who will take the time to understand all your issues and guide you through the completion process, including a FREE completion check (snag list). Once your property has been completed, you will be able to utilise our Concierge service.

Via LIFETIME Aftersales you will have direct access to the wealth of resources across the group and approved suppliers that have been vetted by us. LIFETIME Aftersales can coordinate

Member Benefits

Here at CPM Property we recognise that all our clients have individual plans for their investment. We recommend that clients subscribe to the LIFETIME Aftersales Membership for the duration of their own personal investment period and we find that 90% of our clients take up the offer straight away for the simple fact that they receive a one point of contact and a hassle free service.

The membership covers all properties purchased through CPM Property in any region that we operate in.

With all this in mind we have created different levels of membership:
2 Years – Short term, 3 Years – Medium term, 5 – 10 Years Long term

You select the best option to suit your needs!
